For Immediate Release, East Greenbush, NY, May 16, 2018

Matthew R. Dingley, 26 of Latham, was arrested in possession of a stolen motorcycle. Around 4:00 p.m., customers called police to report seeing a motorcyclist sitting on a Ninja Kawasaki, drinking beer in the Peter Harris parking lot off Columbia Turnpike. Officer Edward Ashley responded to investigate and determined that the motorcycle had been stolen days earlier from Rotterdam. While being placed in custody, Dingley attempted to flee. He was charged with Criminal Possession of Stolen Property 3rd Dgr., Resisting Arrest and numerous other counts. He appeared before Town Justice George J. Hoffman Jr. and was remanded to County Jail.

In other cases;

Dylan R. Wolf, 17 of East Greenbush was ticketed along with two other vehicle occupants, including a juvenile, for consuming marijuana in a moving vehicle. Also brought by Officer Edward Ashley, was one count of 7th Dgr. Possession Controlled Substance, after several pills of Adderall were recovered. Adderall is a strong central nervous system prescription stimulant, intended for the medical treatment of serious disorders. Being a stimulant, misuse of black market Adderall can quickly become addictive, and, according to recent heroin-addiction research, makes misuse a dangerous gateway to the eventual dependency on even stronger stimulants such as cocaine and heroin.

Anthony F. Lipari, 40 of Hudson was located on a shoulder embankment of I-90, about a half mile from the Walmart store he had run from, through woods and swamps, with a pair of stolen H1 Hover Boards. He was taken into custody by Officer Trevor LaGrave. The stolen property, valued at $350.00 was recovered.

All cases will be heard in Town Court. Refer to source above for additional information.
