For Immediate Release, East Greenbush, NY, August 10, 2018

Evan I. Dimitriadis, 34 of Watervliet was arrested for Larceny after he drove off from shoplifting at Walmart. Officer Michael Herrington spotted the suspect vehicle and apprehended Dimitriadis with the stolen property on I-90.

In other cases;

Keith D. Dominski, 27, was charged when he falsely identified himself to police during an investigation. Workers at Market 32 called 9-1-1 after they found a person lying unconscious on a bathroom floor. After being administered first aid, Dominski regained consciousness then falsely identified himself to Officer Nicholas Peter, leading to a charge of Criminal Impersonation.

Lucreshia R. Morrison, 29 of Albany was charged by Officer Trevor LaGrave with the Larceny of $700.00 worth of Walmart merchandise.

Anthony T. Moore Sr., 39 of Rensselaer was charged with stealing Red Bull and Monster energy drinks on three occasions from Price Chopper Market 32. On each occasion, over $250.00 worth of the energy drinks was hustled out of the store before employees could determine what happened. He was charged with three counts of Larceny by Detective Michael Guadagnino.

Target store workers noticed a teenage customer walk out without paying for a pair of shoes, sunglasses and a hat that she had picked out. Helen F. Conroy, 19 of Albany, was charged with Larceny by Officer Donald Deitz.

Inajiah E. Gross, 18 of Albany was charged with Larceny by Officer Trevor LaGrave for the theft of $600.00 worth of merchandise from Walmart. All cases will be heard in Town Court. Refer to source above for additional information.
