

Town of East Greenbush Spotlight on Youth Nomination Form

The Town of East Greenbush Community and Recreational Services Department is seeking nominations for our Spotlight on Youth Awards for 2017. We are searching for youth ages 11-18 who consistently give back to our community through volunteerism or by continually exhibiting positive character traits such as kindness, citizenship, respect, and responsibility. If you know of a youth in our community that deserves this recognition and meets our qualifying criteria please send us the attached nomination form along with written testimony as to why you believe this youth is worthy. Please state specific examples of community service or displays of good character.

Please return by May 12, 2017

Qualifying Criteria:

Nominees must be enrolled in the East Greenbush Central School District and be between the ages of 11-18.

(or an East Greenbush resident enrolled in a private school)

Nominees must have exhibited an earnest desire to help or give back to the East Greenbush Community either through volunteerism or through exhibiting positive character traits consistently throughout town helping others.

Nominees may not be nominated by their parents.
